Customer Reviews

'A History of World Societies is a dynamic and comprehensive full-service text.' - Lily Rhodes Novicki, Virginia Western Community College, USA 'I love this book. It is balanced, avoiding many of the anachronisms and politically correct biases that pervade most other surveys. Students find it highly readable.' - Ron Lowe, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, USA 'This text would suit the needs of my students perfectly.' - Gayle Greene-Aguirre, Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, USA 'The book contains particularly excellent maps and images, as well as insets that encourage critical comparison and analysis of documents and images.' - Emily Fisher Gray, Norwich University, USA --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

If you want your Christian beliefs validated in a history book, this is the textbook for you. If you want actual history, look somewhere else. A history book that sidesteps evolution and doesn't dare mention Darwin and Linnaeus on the chapter on evolution gave me cause for concern. Then upon seeing a bible verse on Jacob and his spotted sheep used as an example of artificial selection just made me cringe. I may drop this class as it has lost all credibility in my eyes.

Boring but came in condition as specified. Not a bad price and saved me from the extra money of getting through my college bookstore.

its a book on world societies.

Great reading material. and the font was visible unlike other books that try to cram in too much material by using a smaller font

I needed it for a class, so I bought it. Decent quality.

great textbook

This is a really great history book. Covers a lot.

This does not come with the code for launchpad.
