This book should be called Muay Thai Training in Thailand with a section about Cambodia. Only the first 50 pages had anything to do with Cambodia and this information was very basic and definitely not very helpful in planning a trip. Before purchasing this book, I read a review that said there were great maps and color photos in this book. There are neither maps nor colored pictures. This book is poorly written with little to no useful information about Cambodia. PLEASE DO NOT WASTE YOUR MONEY ON THIS BOOK!

There are only 52 pages out of 133 about Cambodia. The rest is about Thai fighting. The info about Cambodia complete bs. Do not woth a penny.

Worst travel book ever -- lots of fake reviews on this book -- like the real reviewers noted most of this book is not even about Cambodia

Having already been to Cambodia, and enjoyed the sunset at Angkor Wat, I can say that the book is spot on - the well-detailed book on Cambodia I should have read when I was going there! It kicks off with a great introducton to Cambodian history, and follows with lots of practical tips ranging from how to get into the country in the first place, to getting around (even by helicopter!), and much more. For anyone going to Cambodia or simply interested in learning more about the country, I would definitely recommend the book.
