Customer Reviews

This book is very simple and is primarily a recipe book for those at home making it for themselves. Great book with clear instructions and easy recipes. Easy directions, even if you have never made anything before this book will have you in the kitchen making your own products in a jig. Recommended reading if you are interested in the subject.

love this book, she makes reading so easy. I usually read books with a dictionary next to me. but not this book, the writer took absolute care of that for me. the meaning of every ambiguous word is defined in a bracket next to it coupled with the writer's extensive knowledge on skin care. this book is gold. so much to learn from it, thank you

I loved the natural ingredients and different types of lotions and toners. I have oily and sensitive skin. My son has eczema and my daughters have combination skin. Excellent read!

I would like to say thanks to the author for these amazing recipes. I'm a big fan of organic things and homemade cosmetic is my hobby. Perfect recipes to bring nature to you skin.

The first half of the book uses lotions made with water, giving the lotions a very short shelflife of two weeks in the refrigerator. The second half of the book uses recipes that rely on oil's and butters and have a shelflife of six months without being refrigerated. These are great recipes, good ideas that I haven't seen other places. I'm excited to get started.

I found here great compilation of homemade lotions and creams, that are not only healthy, but very easy to do. Here you will find different lotions and you can choose exactly that one, that will be better for you. All directions are pretty clear, written very good. Highly recommend!

Nicely written and elegant book. I was attracted by a tender cover and the content did not disappoint me. I tried many of the recipes in the book and loved the effect from them on my body.

My girls (ages 17 and 13) are really into making beauty products. We all loved this and the recipes are easy and very detailed. Great book for beginners!
