Thomas Pavitte is a graphic designer and experimental artist who often uses simple techniques to create highly complex pieces. He set an unofficial record for the most complex dot-to-dot drawing in 2011 with his version of the Mona Lisa in 6,239 dots. He lives and works in Melbourne, Australia.

Best dot-to-dot artist around. I love Thomas Pavitte's books...I've bought 5 of them. These are therapy for my overstressed head (I have twin 5 year olds) and also will turn into fun, inexpensive art on his walls.

I am a huge Spider-Man fan and this book is perfect for any Spider-Man fanatic. You get 20 great puzzles to complete and then you can actually move to the next level and color the pictures that you have created next. Each of the puzzles take a little bit of time as there are a ton of dots to connect, but you will love the resulting pictures in each one! This was an awesome book that all fans of Spider-Man will love!
