Book by Arender, Barney

The format though terse is easily used. I came to like it. Short and focused descriptions, mileages, and easily located trails are described in more than usual detail. The author must have worked like a trooper to gather these data, and the book is hugely useful on my West and SW sides. His "SE" version which I picked up in a museum intrigued me, and I am glad I got the whole set of his descriptions. Great hikers' companion
