Customer Reviews

I was disappointed with it: had hoped it would have more 'off the grid' types of places but it is more or less a glorified tourist brochure. Gave it 2 stars just because I'm a nice guy.

We bought this for our honeymoon to Cozumel, and while it's a great book, we really expected a larger section for Cozumel! It was like 10-15 pages? Pinterest was more useful.

Fantastic book. Went to the Yucatan area in March, 2017 and it was super helpful to have while on the trip. As plans changed, we were able to quickly look up new possible areas to visit. I highly recommend the ruins at Ek Balam, which I discovered while reading the book.

I was hoping to find a way to schedule a day in cozumel and a couple others in riviera maya, however this was utterly useless for it since the itineraries it suggests are scheduled by days "spend 2 days in playa del carmen, then 2 in cozumel" so it wasn't useful at all for what I needed it.

This book was perfect for our Yucatan vacation. We stayed in a smaller town than the big resort towns, and this guide was great for getting around. My only complaint is that we didn't have enough time to go to all of the places listed.

This new version has a lot of helpful information and it is easy to read.

I always love Lonely Planet and this one was as informative as all the others I have used. Looking forward to my trip in the spring.

It has a lot of good informations that you can not always find online. There is a section at the end with tips and it is super helpful. All the information you need in one source.
