Customer Reviews

For ten years, Jinaika Jakuszeit has been in business creating handcrafted soaps and lotions and instructing others in the craft. She believes in attention to detail in both the science of the product and the beauty of its packaging. A generous teacher, she loves to share her knowledge in her workshops and with a wider audience through this book. She teaches and works in Germany.

Recipes are a little complicated for you average person learning about making homemade beauty products.

This book is amazing. The information is so useful and the photos are impeccable. Thank you!

So much great information here! I love being able to decide what I put on my skin--and make beautiful gifts for my friends too!
