The map is great, but the shipper did not protect it well enough by either packing it in cardboard or by placing a "do not fold" warning so the item is damaged but still usable.

Considering that the street atlas is seven years old I have still have found it very helpful in finding my way around the city. I use it all the time.

I saw this spiral bound outdated book of maps at curious price of $2483. Sure it seems like a lot of cash in age of interactive electronic maps and turn-by-turn GPS. But I figured out it is part treasure map to the long lost Longmont Lode. Nice try. They did not get it past this savvy consumer.
