The Sepher Bahir: Book Of Light

Synopsis

The Sepher Bahir remains to this day one of the principle Kabbalist texts ever created. Ascribed to ancient times, it was first compiled in its general form in the 12th century in Provence, compiling disparate texts which had been part of a loose and sometimes oral tradition in times prior to that same era. It contains five sections, expounding (through rabbinical scholars it is in turn ascribed to) various scriptural truths regarding the nature of the cosmos, of the deity spoken of, and explaining its way through parts of the Torah by virtue of both metaphor and scriptural comparison. The material is not entirely linear, being compiled from other sources, which may indeed have come from various dates beforehand. It interprets a slightly different story of Adam and Eve, and often dwells upon concepts which may well have been influenced in some way by Gnosticism, or by scholars who had encountered it. Whatever its true origins, it remains a priceless compilation for those studying the mysteries and occult tenets of the Torah.

Customer Reviews

The ending of this book shocked me... "Whoever increases, diminishes...." That alone brought a lot of truth to me. This book does help break down a lot of the confusing, bible verses. A good start to the road of mystics. I recommend it. For anyone advancing their occult, knowledge....

Excellent translation. I have no idea who publishes this and several other suburb Kabbalah books - but they are not to be missed.

I like to read such books for learning, Thank you worth such my investment on this product.

AWESOME

I am very happy with this purchase. Thanks

Talmudic Texts - definite knowledge of Hebrew is prerequisite to reading and even then not necessarily intelligible, money and time better spent on other grimoires, but props to seller.

This book is an excellent aid to my study of the deeper spiritual messages within the Torah.

better than anticipated
