Biography & Autobiography. Historical. Hardcover edition.

Living in America, it is easy to miss seeing the struggle for survival that goes on in the world still today. In Armenia, each day, the basic needs of survival are the paramount issue for most, that is food and water. In A Call from Home, Dr. Najarian tells a story of courage, compassion and pure determination despite many hardships. Though set in her ancestral homeland, the story could take place many other places in the world. It is a tale of the dedication she found there while helping anchor many to the world as they helped others strive for a better tomorrow as humans do all over the globe.
