Follow Your Heart

Synopsis

"Bittner is one of those writers whose talent has grown over the years; that talent truly blossoms."
#151; Publishers Weekly
Devastated by the droughts and plagues that have ravaged her family's homestead on the Nebraska Plains in the 1870s, settler Ingrid Svensson regards wealthy Jude Kingman as her sworn enemy. But Ingrid gradually sees that Jude shares her commitment to seeing justice served, and when personal tragedy strikes at everything she holds most dear, this strong, independent woman must reconsider her previous assumptions and open her heart to forgiveness and love. The award-winning author of over fifty books, Michigan resident Rosanne Bittner is a member of the service organization the Lioness Club, which supports needy families and other worthy causes. She and her husband of thirty-nine years have two sons.

Customer Reviews

Follow Your Heart is one of the best inspirational Christian books I've ever read. Rosanne Bittner is the best historical writer, ever. This book is so touching and moving that I made need to read it again. Forgiveness and Love are both priceless gifts from God. She hit this one out of the park.

Rosanne Bittner reaches your very inner heart with this appealing tale of true love and faith. You will not want to put this book down until read. The tale holds you enthralled as it weaves around you drawing you right into the lives of the wonderful characters, you never want the story to end!

Sweet easy read by Rosanne Bittner. Nice for an afternoon escape. Loved the threads of faith and prayer and forgiveness that weaved it's way through Jude and Ingrid's love story.

Rosanne did it again. I finish a book and think that one was her best then here comes another. Great book.

Can't miss any of her books!!! All are different and terrific! researches her history well

5 stars. An enjoyable read

This was also a good read. It was very warm and pleasant. Not too long. The plot was good. I really enjoyed the reading.

I never mind a little religion in a book but this was too much. This book was not the usual Bittner story. I hope she's not changing the style of her previous books. I want the old Bittner back. This was the type of book you can read in a Sunday school class. The love story with good but bland, with maybe two kisses all totaled. This book was a disappointment from one of my favorite authors. Bring the old Bittner back.
