A Daughter's Guide To Not Going To Jail For Helping Your Mother

Synopsis

The sun had just risen, and she was just leaving the high desert journeying down to the low desert over a hundred miles away. Then suddenly, she had to stop and turn around because she received a mysterious phone call from her husband. He said that she had to return to the place where they were staying. When she asked why, he would not give her a reason. He just said that it was extremely important that she return before she went to the low desert. She wondered with this strange calmness of mind what was going on. When she arrived at their place, she was immediately approached by three men and a woman determined to take her miles away in a different direction. They were there to avenge two men who hated her with all of their heart. These men set a trap to break her spirit and imprison her body, but that Strange Calmness engulfed her like a cloud on the mountain top as one man and the woman drove her away.
