Riposte (Purgatory Wars Book 2)

Synopsis

Welcome to Purgatory - a world where anything can happen. Liam Vanderbilt arrived on this world with nothing but his wits, his steel longsword, and his iPod full of historical textbooks. Now with Megara, a literal angel made flesh, and Thethis, a gorgeous goblin mage, he must use his unique attributes for the good of all to avoid the brutal violence of our own past. But when he tries to get the scientific and historical knowledge on his iPod transcribed, he becomes embroiled in a shadowy game of cat and mouse. Fortunately Liam has several beautiful and powerful women at his side (and in his bed) to stand against their enemies. But is Neb, the shy but sexy jackalgirl librarian they meet, friend or foe? Riposte is a 37,000 word erotic epic fantasy novella set in Purgatory is an alternative Bronze Age world of sensual eroticism and crackling magic. Liam, Meg and Thethis will return in The Cross Guard for more adventure, intrigue and sexual experimentation.

Customer Reviews

This book was better than the last one but still has an excessive amount of end book content that throws off the page and wordcount a full 18% of the book is not actually the story but an excerpt and advertisements.

This is even better than the last book with a great story that could stand on its own without the sex, that's just a bonus. Both books could be a echhi harem anime if censored a tiny bit or a straight up hentai. Can't wait for the next one, just wish there were less adds at the end.

The writing is great. Very fluid and well put together. However, a major plot point it seems at times is that Liam is a SJW, and a third wave feminist. I say a major plot point because at certain points, what i see is at the start of the first few chapters, there is a major rant on being this. One "joke" is that he was going to feminist hell for liking shaved pussy. Add into this that hes a swordsman and white...you made a White Knight for your feminist friendly propaganda book. I wouldn't even mind the propaganda for feminism if it stayed consistent. Since at another point, it seems like he throws all his feminist crap out the window and starts calling a girl a cocksut. But, like i said the writing is fantastic. Its why ive bought this one even after seeing the same issues in the first. Except i wont be buying the 3rd. Just the breaks from these quips breaks the immersion of reading it and frankly puts me off. This is, in essence an erotica-adventure book. When there are quips that says the main characters a bad person for doing this or that in the moments of erotic scenes, there goes half if not more of the book.

Waiting for the next book

Good read characters are developing nicely ,my complaint is the length for the price could be longer but still fun

Was a fast interestingly adult read. Awaiting the third book. Liking the story so far. Wish the main character was less like a harem anime character.

A good plot, an interesting premise, but the protagonist really comes across as a self-righteous prat who's proud of being called an SJW
