Black And Green: The Ghost Bird Series: #11

Synopsis

From USA TODAY Bestselling Author, C. L. Stone, read Black and Green, the much-anticipated eleventh book in The Academy Ghost Bird Series. Sang Sorenson's father abandoned her and her sister, leaving them to fend for themselves for months. He's returned, and finds Sang is missing. He demands she return. Right now. Will he call the police if she doesn't? Her Academy team doesn't want to risk losing her ghost status and she doesn't want to put them in danger, so she reluctantly returns home, but is comforted that she will still be monitored by them. But the second she opens the door, she discovers her father has made changes that will affect her entire future. His decisions will make them a normal family. Normal is no longer what Sang wants. It would kill her Academy career before it ever started. Not to mention it would end the special, new, and still-fragile relationships with the guys. Sang struggles with her family, her identity, and where she truly belongs. Now that the entire team knows about their romantic relationships with her, tensions are mounting, tearing the team apart from the inside. Only, Dr. Green isn't going to lie down and roll over by playing by the rules. Not anymore. Not while Sang is at risk. His heart can't take leaving her in that house one more minute. He needs her. They all do.

Customer Reviews

The book was good, well written, well edited no complaints in that department however the overall book in regards to the series was a bit underwhelming for me. Since this is the 11th book of the series combined with a 1.5 year wait for it to be released I was expecting...more. Don't get me wrong CL gave Sang and her guys lovely moments together, and getting to know Dr Green was integral to the story but this story only spans 2.5ish days and they still have so many problems to overcome not including their RH relationship has me wondering how long is this going to drag out. I fell in love with this series because it was an RH and how wonderful CL writes about their budding relationships, but after 11 books I'm in the mood for more heat and action with her guys and I'm scared I'm never going to get that. I would love to see a time jump, I don't need or want to read book after book at such a snails pace. It's sad because I absolutely love Sang and her guys A LOT but all this waiting and what's gonna happen are making me frustrated. That being said I will still continue to read this series because it's become a mission which I need to see to completion, frustrations or not.

This review may contain spoilers for some of you I waited so long for this book and I couldn't expect anything better than what I got. CL never fails to suck me into her Academy world. If you've made it this far into the series already, then you have an idea of what to expect from the writing and the story line. However, this book was a little different as it had dual POV's- Sang and Dr. Sean Green. It was a great change to the writing style allowing us readers to get a more in-depth view of some of the characters we have fallen in love with over the years. This book gave us what we have all been waiting for from the beginning I think, Sang away from her family for good, hopefully. You also get to see Sang express her feelings more in a way that allows each person to know exactly what she is feeling. I think this will help everyone so much in the future. We get a preview into what the next book may have to offer and it is a major cliffhanger. I hope we will not have to wait long for the book to know what happens, but no matter the time length, I know I will be anxiously waiting for its release.

As always with this author, just when you think you know how things are going to go she switches direction and off you go in another direction. When you write this many books in a series you have to keep the story line interesting and fun and she does this every time. This one, for me, was a bit of a let down for me. There was not much action and Sang was not the strong heroine we have come to know and love. This time the guys have to step up. The other problem is that as the relationships develop the author has to give Sang with each of the guys and because there are so many of them it tends to slow the story itself down as they all have their bit of time with her. By the end it feels a bit unresolved to me as I didn't feel we got to the bottom of the motives of the new "family members" so I am assuming that while they appear to be sorted at the end of the book that they will be coming back at sometime in the future to even things out. I only gave it three stars simply because a lot of the sessions with each of the boys felt more and more like filler rather than actually pushing the story line along.

First, let me say that I don't review books. I read so many books so quickly, that it just isn't possible. This book series is the exception. I can't keep my thoughts to myself. This is my favorite series of all time. I can't get enough of it! I read this book as soon as it appeared in my kindle. After reading the series several times I still think it is amazing. The characters are fully developed, expressive and loved. I can tell the author knows each of them inside and out. She is able to share thoughts and feelings so easily, I feel like I know them just as well. In this book we pick up where we left off in the last. Sang is walking into hell again. I really enjoyed getting more story with Dr Sean Green. He is such a sweetie!! I already can't wait for the next book. I hope we get a story with more Owen, Mr Blackburn. He needs some one on one time with Sang. A kiss needs to happen!! I could go on and on about this series. I love it and I recommend it to all lovers of romance. Thanks you CL Stone! Mrs. Guitarpety

Poor Sang has never had an easy life. But now she finally has some freedom from her truly horrific former life. She's convinced the Powers That Be that she is right where she belongs. Then something pops up and completely spills the apple cart, turning her life completely upside-down! And things go from bad to worse quickly. Not only is Sang trapped in her own home again, but she's forced to quit her job, has her cell phone taken away with the threat of homeschooling looming, she is more isolated than ever. Of course the additional stress is wreaking havoc on her system, causing more medical issues. How will the boys get her out without causing the authorities to be alerted to her existence? And now there's a time crunch involved... she could be gone within two weeks and out of reach with no hope of rescue!! I waited for this book to come out for so long, only to devour it in one sitting. And so the waiting game begins again...
