Clive Staples Lewis (1898-1963) was one of the intellectual giants of the twentieth century and arguably the most influential Christian writer of his day. He was a Fellow and Tutor in English literature at Oxford University until 1954, when he was unanimously elected to the Chair of Medieval and Renaissance English at Cambridge University, a position he held until his retirement. His major contributions in literary criticism, children's literature, fantasy literature, and popular theology brought him international renown and acclaim. He wrote more than thirty books, allowing him to reach a vast audience, and his works continue to attract thousands of new readers every year. His most distinguished and popular accomplishments include, The Chronicles of Narnia, Out of the Silent Planet, The Four Loves, The Screwtape Letters, and Mere Christianity. Visit the C.S. Lewis website at www.cslewis.com.

The kids and I loved Lynn Redgrave's reading of "Prince Caspian!" It showed how gifted she was in narrating children's literature. The story came alive, and we were lost in the enchantment of Narnia, thanks to her warm and skillful interpretation. Among all the British actors who narrated the Narnia audiobooks, we all agreed that her reading was the best. She had the widest emotional range and was obviously a natural at it!
