Synopsis

Sixteen-year-old Lexa Walker has a pretty good shot at becoming the next U.S. Ladies™ Figure Skating Champion, but everyone who hears her name thinks only of her brilliant parentsâ "pairs skating legends Walker and Walkerâ "and of the tragedy that ended their short stellar career. Training under her dissatisfied father, Blake, Lexa both feels the weight of that legacy and dreams of truly fulfilling it . . . by skating pairs instead of singles. No one skates pairs in Blakeâ ™s rink, though. Not anymore. Lexa canâ ™t even speak of her longing to do so without further damaging their already dysfunctional relationship. The only way sheâ ™ll ever skate pairs is to find a new coach, new rink, new partner, and the money to pay for it all. Impossible. Until someone offers her exactly that. . . . Is chasing a dream worth risking a national title and whatâ ™s left of her bond with her father? Or is every risk justified for the chance to walk on water?

Customer Reviews

This book was amazing. I wish I could read it for the first time all over again. THANK YOU LAURA PEYTON ROBERTS FOR WRITING THIS BOOK!!!

This was a great book. The story was well-written and the characters were well-thought out. As a skater myself, I can say with confidence that the skating details and terminology were on point.
