Graffiti Women: Street Art From Five Continents

Synopsis

From the author of the enormously successful Graffiti World comes this spectacular follow-up, celebrating the contributions of women to contemporary graffiti and street art. Female writers have always been in the vanguard of the graffiti movement, though often shunted to the sidelines by their male counterparts. This exhaustive volume places them front and center, featuring 1,000 full-color illustrations from some of the world's most prominent artists, including Brazil's Nina, Japan's Sasu, Mexico's Peste, and the Americans Lady Pink, Swoon, and Miss 17. Two eight-page fold-out collages, a fold-out poster jacket, and an authoritative text round out the impressive package. The first and only comprehensive survey of its kind, this book is sure to attract and expand upon the wide and enthusiastic readership that made Graffiti World such a runaway success.

I didn't realize there was a book on just women doing Graffiti and Street Art. I really love it and the artists on display.

Amazing bombers and great art. Good coverage of a neglect minority of women who dare to express themselves via a spray can in a male-dominated medium.

Great to see a range of art styles from talented women of the graffiti world. Perhaps would be nice to see some more characters and less graffiti text, but that's just me. There's a lot of art packed into this though and a range of styles. The introductory text is interesting as well.

Beautiful ladies, beautiful minds, beautiful art.

Great
