The New York Times: 36 Hours USA & Canada, Northeast

Synopsis

Weekends on the road: The best of the American Northeast and Canada The New York Times has been offering up dream weekends with practical itineraries in its popular weekly “36 Hours” column since 2002. The many expert contributors have brought careful research, insider’s knowledge, and a sense of fun to hundreds of cities and destinations, always with an eye to getting the most out of a short trip. Based on the best-selling book 36 Hours: 150 Weekends in the USA & Canada, the Times and TASCHEN now bring together the best of the Northeast and Canada. From the great urban centers on everyone’s travel list to surprising locales with undiscovered character and charm, the paths lead to fashionable clubs in Manhattan, quaint New England towns, the French America of Quebec, and well beyond. Featured destinations: Bar Harbor, Maine The Bay of Fundy, New Brunswick Boston, Massachusetts The Brandywine Valley, Pennsylvania Brooklyn, New York Burlington, Vermont Cambridge, Mass. Barbara Ireland, a writer and editor based in western New York State, is a former deputy travel editor and deputy Op-Ed page editor at The New York Times. While on the Times staff, she commissioned and edited many "36 Hours" columns and wrote a few herself. She is a graduate of Cornell University and was a John S. Knight journalism fellow at Stanford University.

this eliminates the guess work of being spontaneous -- ensuring a rich and fulfilling experience close to home. I think I will slowly purchase all of the "36 Hours" series and expand my collection.

Bought as a gift it was on my sisters Wish List and she seemed happy to get it!

The maps are somewhat incomplete as to location of each particular attraction.

I would rate it to anyone that is about to travel.. gives to great IDEAS as well as places if great intrest

Great book, arrived safely packaged well.A+++

He loved it!

very good

Used on a trip to Brooklyn and went to a recommend place which was nothing special - disappointed - can't believe they could not find something more interesting.
