Buenos Aires Travel Guide, A Short Guide To The Seedy Side: Drugs, Drinking, Smoking, Sex, Strippers And Gambling

Synopsis

Is That Legal in Buenos Aires, and How Does That Work? Here's the problem: you have questions about certain activities and you can't find the exact answers in guidebooks, forums, and blog posts. This short travel guide will fill in the gaps for you about certain activities and how they are done. Even if right now you aren't curious about certain laws, you may get to Buenos Aires and see someone doing something and wonder - are they allowed to do that? You already know that every city and country has different laws, so before you go to Buenos Aires you ought to know how these things work there. This short guide isn't an endorsement nor a condemnation of any activities. It just answers the questions for the curious. It will satisfy your curiosity, it will set the record straight, and it will keep you from getting a criminal record. In this guidebook, you will learn: What's legal What's not legal What websites to visit for more information How to find these activities Even if you have no interest to participate in these activities, you may learn something new about Buenos Aires to add to your experience and understanding.
