"The first comprehensive historical treatment of Florentine and Sienese art of the period ca. 1350-75.... A small masterpiece of historical detective work."--Booklist

Here-in a rich interweaving of considerations of connoisseurship, style, iconography, cultural and social background, and historical events-is the first extended study of the history of Florentine and Sienese painting in the later fourteenth century, in the period following the plague of the Black Death 1348. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.
