"These books are packed with suggestions for kid-friendly restaurants, outdoor spots where travelin' tots can run free, rainy day fun, and more. They also offer tips for engaging your child's mind and sense of wonder at every stop." â " Scholastic Parent & Child "Whatâ |makes this series unusual is the attention to detail. Yes, all the big sights are here, but even the famous places are given a slight twist â " always with children and their parents in mind." â " Chicago Tribune "For families traveling with young people, it's hard to do better than this handsomely illustrated guide, which is arranged geographically and notable for its focus on family friendly activities." â " Library Journal

Great book that basically planned or entire DC trip for our family. Went with 7 and 10 year old and had a great time. Very clearly organized, tons of info, beautiful pictures, high quality, great suggestions, etc. This was the only thing we needed to plan our trip and take with us to DC (even with all the free info on the internet, it was totally worth the price!)

Good book; would have liked it to give better ratings, like "Must see" or "could skip if short on time".But gives great descriptions of all the sites, museums, and nearby eating places.

8 yr old and 10 yr old enjoyed looking at the book. They were able to figure out 3 of their favorite places to go when we get to visit DC from that information. Travel information and maps are great in the book. The pictures are great, We hope this information will help make for good research for the trip.

Great book. We use it all the time as we go through the different sites around the city. We live locally but it is nice to have MORE information as we tour and the thing I like the most is the info on food nearby and places to "cool off" so to speak.

We had a great time in DC with a 3 year old and 7 year old for a week and this really helped.

This was a great book for our trip to dc. I loved the pictures and descriptions.

Very very helpful. Went on the trip. Took some of the sights to see close to the hotel we stayed at , got that from the book too. Everything was in walking distance. Will use the book again for our next trip to DC.

Love it. Easy to hold, and travel with. Each page has a section that applies that specific attraction to kids.
